" COMPANIES ACT "

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to order that Order in Council No. 1066, approved May 9th, 1951, establishing the fees to be paid to the Registrar of Companies, be rescinded, effective June 15th, 1951; and that, under the provisions of subsection (1) of section 252 of the "Companies Act," chapter 58 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1948," the fees to be paid to the Registrar of Companies in respect of the several matters mentioned hereunder be established in the amounts there specified, effective June 15th, 1951.

FEES

Incorporation and Registration

1. Where a company has only shares of nominal or par value and its authorized capital does not exceed $10,000, the fee for incorporation shall be $50.00
2. Where a company has only shares of nominal or par value and its authorized capital exceeds $10,000, the fee for incorporation shall be $50, with the following additional fees, regulated according to the amount of the authorized capital, that is to say:—
For every $5,000 of authorized capital, or part of $5,000, after the first $10,000 up to $25,000 $5.00
For every $5,000 of authorized capital, or part of $5,000, after the first $25,000, up to $500,000 2.50
For every $5,000 of authorized capital, or part of $5,000, after the first $500,000 1.25
3. Where a company has only shares without nominal or par value, the number of such shares that the company is authorized to issue shall be multiplied by the amount of $100, and the total amount so calculated shall for the purposes of this Schedule be the authorized capital of the company, and the fee for incorporation shall be calculated accordingly under paragraph 1 or 2, as the case may be: Provided that where the memorandum or articles state in manner provided by section 28 (2) a maximum price or consideration at or for which such shares shall be issued, the number of shares as aforesaid shall be multiplied by the amount of that maximum price or consideration instead of by the amount of $100.
4. Where a company has shares both with and without nominal or par value, the fee for incorporation shall be $50 if the total amount of authorized capital calculated according to paragraphs 1 and 3 does not exceed $10,000, and if the total amount so calculated exceeds $10,000, the fee for incorporation shall be calculated in accordance with paragraphs 2 and 3.
5. The fee for registration of an extra-provincial company shall be the same fee as is payable for incorporation under paragraph 1, 2, 3, or 4, as the case may be: Provided that where the company has a paid-up capital exceeding $250,000, or assets (after deduction from its gross assets of the amount of any indebtedness of the company in respect of mortgages) exceeding $250,000, as the case may be, and proves to the satisfaction of the Registrar that it is actually carrying on an established business beyond the Province in which at least 50 per centum of such capital is invested or such assets are employed, the fee shall be calculated according to the paid-up capital or the assets as aforesaid and shall not exceed a fee of $250.

6. In the case of an extra-provincial company that has been previously licensed or registered under this or any former Companies Act, the "Fire Insurance Act," the "Insurance Act," or the "Trust Companies Act," and whose registration is restored under section 182 or revived under section 188, there shall be accepted in commutation of the fees prescribed by paragraph 5 a fee of $25.00
7. Where after its incorporation or registration, as the case may be, a company or extra-provincial company:—
 - (a) Increases its authorized capital or the number of shares without nominal or par value that it is authorized to issue, the same fees shall be paid per $5,000 or part of $5,000 as would have been payable under paragraph 2, 3, 4, or 5 if such increased capital or number of shares had formed part of the original capital or number of shares at the time of incorporation or registration, as the case may be:
 - (b) Increases the maximum price or consideration at or for which its shares without nominal or par value may be issued, the same fees shall be paid as would have been payable under paragraph 2, 3, 4, or 5 if such increased maximum price or consideration had been the maximum price or consideration at the time of incorporation or registration, as the case may be, allowance being made for fees already paid:
 - (c) The provisions of paragraph 5 with respect to commutation of fees shall apply to any increase to which this paragraph applies.

Conversion

8. For conversion of specially limited company into a limited company 5.00
9. For conversion of a limited company into a specially limited company 5.00
10. For conversion of a private company into a public company 5.00
11. For conversion of a public company into a private company 5.00
12. For conversion of a company limited by guarantee into a limited company 5.00
13. For conversion of a company specially incorporated in pursuance of Part VI of the "Water Clauses Consolidation Act, 1897," into a limited company 25.00
14. For conversion of a company incorporated by special Act into a limited company 25.00

And also such fee in respect of the capital of the company as would be payable if the company were being incorporated under this Act, after allowing as a deduction therefrom the fees (if any) already paid to the Province in respect of the incorporation of the company and any increase of its capital.

Miscellaneous

15. For registering or filing any document other than the memorandum or annual report 1.00

16. For filing an annual report:—
Private company	$2.00
Public company	4.00
Extra-provincial company	4.00
17. For making a record of any fact hereby authorized or required to be recorded by the Registrar	1.00
18. For changing the name of any company	10.00
19. For application by an extra-provincial company for registration in lieu of filing fees	7.50
20. For registration of a mortgage	2.00
21. For restoration of a company or extra-provincial company to the register or revival of the registration of an extra-provincial company, in addition to filing fees	25.00
22. For certificate under section 208 (6)	2.00
23. For certificate of true copy or extract	1.00
24. For each and every search	.50
25. For a copy or extract from any document, 30 cents for every hundred words or fractional part thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

BRIDGE PROJECT No. 82.—SUBSTRUCTURE FOR RIVER BEND BRIDGE AND HIGHWAY APPROACHES, ALBERNI-NANAIMO ELECTORAL DISTRICT.

SEALED TENDERS, marked "Tender for River Bend Bridge and Highway Approaches, Alberni," will be received by the Minister of Public Works, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C., up to 12 o'clock noon (Pacific Daylight Saving time) on Tuesday, the 19th day of June, 1951, and opened in public at that time and date.

Plans, specifications, and conditions of tender may be obtained from the Public Works Office, 635 Burrard Street, Vancouver, B.C., or from the undersigned, on deposit of a sum of ten dollars ($10), which will be refunded on their return in good condition within a period of one month of the receipt of tenders, except in the case of the successful tenderer where the plan deposit is not refundable.

Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted cheque on a chartered Canadian bank for the sum of four thousand dollars ($4,000). This deposit shall be forfeited if the tenderer declines to enter into contract, or if he fails to complete the work contracted for.

• The cheques of unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them when the contract has been awarded.

Tenders must be made out on the forms supplied, and enclosed in the envelope furnished.

Tenderers must submit with their tenders a list stating the type, capacity, and present location (so that inspection can be made if necessary) of the equipment in their possession or at their disposal that is immediately available for the carrying-out of the work within the time-limit specified without in any way curtailing or delaying any Departmental project that may be under contract at this date. No tender will be considered that does not contain this information.

No tender will be accepted or considered that contains an escalator clause or any other qualifying conditions, and the lowest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

PRIVATE BILLS

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a draw-bridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated January 5th, 1949.

E. K. DEBECK,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.
